Elizabeth (Lizzie) Guiliani is a healthcare executive with over 45 years of leadership experience, including 35 years in healthcare administration she champions Catholic identity and values, providing mission education and ethical guidance to leadership, staff, and volunteers. A seasoned mission leader, Elizabeth is deeply committed to serving the poor and addressing systemic poverty through healthcare initiatives. Her expertise spans Catholic theology, ethics, and moral reasoning, combined with operational leadership in hospital and clinic management.

Elizabeth also draws inspiration from an unlikely mentor—the Cowardly Lion from The Wizard of Oz. His timeless message about courage resonates in her leadership: true bravery isn't about fearlessness but about acting with heart and conviction. Whether guiding ethics committees or shaping mission strategy, Elizabeth leads with courage, compassion, and a dash of lion-hearted humor.
