Evening with Dylan Reinhardt

"Living life fully alive; Mind, Body, and Soul"

"The Glory of God is man fully alive" - St. Irenaeus
God created us as "a composite being, spirit and body" and "there already exists a certain tension in him; a certain struggle of tendencies between 'spirit' and 'flesh'". (CCC 2516) What does it mean to live life fully alive according to God's will post original sin and its consequences? This evening we will dive into what it means to live life fully alive; Mind, body, and soul. We will be discussing what God's plan is for our lives, the obstacles that get in our way, and what we can do to live life as fully alive as we possibly can in this life so as to enter into Heaven eternally.

The evening includes:

5 p.m. Mass (this fulfills your weekend obligation)

6 p.m. Supper

6:45 p.m. Presentation

7:30p.m. Adoration and an opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation

8:30 p.m. Concludes

COST:

The Abbey of the Hills is sustained in large part by the donations of the retreatants. For those who can give, your donation will help "pay the gift of peace" forward to help those with limited means.

Dylan grew up in Lincoln, NE and graduated from Peru State College in 2017 with a dual degree in Exercise Science and in Disease and Human Health. Dylan had a radical conversion back to the Catholic faith in college stemming from a severe bout of Lyme disease that started in 2014. He served with FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students) from May 2017-July 2024 at Wayne State College in Nebraska, South Dakota State University, and digital outreach, serving Universities of New Hampshire and Vermont. As of July 2024, Dylan will serve as the director of Discipleship, Catechesis, and Evangelization with Queen of Peace pastorate in South Dakota. Dylan is happily married, as of December 2022, to Mandy and they have the joy of raising their daughter who was born in Oct. 2023.
