Dave Aesoph is a Milbank native who grew up one of six children in the Don & Patti Aesoph household. He grew up very passionate about music, beginning guitar lessons in 5th grade and forming a rock band in high school. With no clear path into a career in music, he took his mother's advice and got a business degree from Northern State University. He spent 20 years in the insurance industry - always knowing that he would have a second career at some point. His work took him to Cleveland in 2004, where he visited a church that featured a contemporary worship band. By 2006, he felt called to leave the insurance industry and begin a career leading worship music. He began on a volunteer basis in 2009 while living in Watertown, South Dakota and by 2013 had wrapped up his insurance career and was hired by a church in Sioux Falls. Dave and his wife Alyssa live in Sioux Falls and are raising four of their grandchildren.
